Mrs. Henry Bruns, wife of the well known blacksmith at Grand Junction, Iowa, says: "I was troubled with sleeplessness, nervousness, headaches, and irregular menstruation; suffering untold misery for years. I noticed in Dr. Miles' advertisement the testimonial of a lady cured of ailments similar to mine, and I shall never cease to thank that lady. ## MALINTA CAPTURED

By General Wheaton's Troops
After Sharp Fighting on Sunday.

THE ENEMY'S STRONGHOLD

Philippines Burn Malabon and Their Forces Flee in the Direction of Malolos at Which Place They are Expected to Make Their Last Stand. Wheaton's Division After Them.

Manila, March 27.—11:15 a. m.—The Americans this morning found the important town of Polo and a number of small villages west of the railroad deserted and burning. They are advancing along the railroad.

The Americans have advanced along the line of the Dagupan railroad driving the Filipinos from Malinto and New Cananay, where there were 3,000 inhabitants. Last night the brigades of General Harrison Gray Otis and General Hale encamped in the enemy's trenches at New Cananay and that of General Wheaton at Malinta.

Manila, March 27.—The Filipinos are burning their stronghold at Malabon and their forces are fleeing from the city in the direction of Malolos.

General MacArthur's division is pushing toward Malabon.

The insurgents will make their last stand probably at Malolos.

General Wheaton's brigade formed a junction with the remainder of General MacArthur's division at Malinta, and the two, leaving General Wheaton there, marched along the railroad to New Cananay. This place was fortified, and for 300 yards from it there were trenches on each side of the track. These were taken possession of by the American troops. American loss, seven killed and 25 wounded.

Manila, March 27.—The United States troops under Brigadier General Lloyd Wheaton captured the town of Malinta, beyond the Tulaian river yesterday after a sharp fight. Colonel Harry C. Egbert of the Twenty-second infantry was killed. Prince Lowenstein, formerly aide d'camp on the staff of Brigadier General Miller at Holo, somehow got in front of the firing line and was shot in the side, dying almost instantly.

A general who accompanied him was wounded.

The American casualties yesterday were much lighter than those of Saturday, the total losses thus far reported since the engagement commenced being 45 killed and 145 wounded.

General Wheaton entered Malinta, which is a small village of huts, yesterday afternoon.

The United States gunboat Helena and other gunboats have been shelling Malabon, about a mile northwest of Calocan, for several hours.

The insurgents made a fierce resistance to the American advance up the railroad at Malinta. In addition to the fatal wounding of Colonel Egbert, several men of the Twenty-second infantry and several of the Oregon and Kansas regiments were killed.

Malabon Burned by Enemy. Evidently anticipating a bombardment by the fleet, 1,000 rebels vacated Malabon Saturday night, leaving a few to burn the town. General Wheaton's brigade, composed of the Second Oregon regiment and the Twenty-second and Third infantry, stretched out along the railroad from Calocan to the Tulaian river, was powerless to prevent the withdrawal, owing to the natural obstacles and to the strong opposition. A column of smoke at daybreak was the first intimation of the enemy's intentions, but others followed at various points, all soon blending in a dense black smoke. The flames of the burning rice mills and large buildings could be plainly seen from Calocan despite the strong sunlight.

By 11 o'clock in the morning the only building of importance not destroyed in the center of the town was a large stone church, but even at noon fresh fires were started among the natives' huts in the outskirts of Malabon, although the general exodus took place much earlier. Many of the rebels sought refuge in the suburbs Navotas and Casag, or were driven inland by the shells of the Helena, Callon, Ningdapan and Laguna de Bay. Unable to Advance.

In the meantime General Wheaton's brigade held the railroad to the river, but was unable either to repair the bridge, which had been destroyed by the enemy, or to advance, owing to the opposition and the hills on the other side. The calculations of both General Hale and General Harrison Gray Otis, whose brigades constituted General MacArthur's division, were much interfered with by the character of the country in front of both, and the enemy was able to take advantage of this, so that the operations against Navoliches and Polo were delayed, though the right wing of the division swung out, sweeping the in a northwesterly direction.

General Wheaton's headquarters Saturday night was a half-mile south of the river on the railroad. The opposite bank was protected by a blockhouse and intrenchments.

Occasionally artillery and infantry fired across the stream. Finally the engines moved a construction train up to the bridge, the iron frame work of which remained, and began to replace the floor.

While this was going on the Second Oregon regiment crossed the river on the left and the Twenty-second on the right, with four companies of the Twenty-third infantry supporting the latter regiment. A rising clear ground stretched away a distance of half a mile to Malinta, situated on its crest.

Fired From Trenches. In front of the village were strong Filipino intrenchments, but no Filipinos were to be seen. Apparently they had fled. The Twenty-second regiment approached diagonally, with General Wheaton and his staff close behind, and scouts closely observing the ground.

When the Americans were within about 300 yards of the intrenchments, the Filipinos suddenly volleyed heavily. The Twenty-second, which was holding the center, suffered considerably, but with the Oregon on the left and the Kansas on the right in the woods, the fighting was kept up for half an hour, the Twenty-second infantry advancing up the slope, through the thick grass, under the hottest fire.

General Wheaton and his staff were all the time under a rain of bullets. Colonel Egbert, who was in the thickest of the fighting, was shot in the abdomen. He was placed on a stretcher and an attempt was made to carry him to the cars, but he died on the way. It was a most affecting scene. General Wheaton, baring his head, said: "You have done nobly." Colonel Egbert gasped in reply: "I must die; I am too old."

No Filipinos were found in the trenches.

WASHINGTON.

Advices From Otis Watched With Keen Interest.

Washington, March 27.—Advices from General Otis were watched with keenest interest by war department officials yesterday, and Assistant Secretary McKeljohn, who, in the absence of Secretary Alger, is acting secretary of war, remained in his office throughout the day in order to keep in close touch with the progress of the fighting. Many army officers and other officials were also at the department, and the president was kept advised as to the developments as indicated in General Otis' dispatches. The first message from General Otis was received during the morning and was soon followed by others, whose contents gave the officials here their first general idea of the operations of the last two days.

The list of killed and wounded, which General Otis had promised, was waited anxiously by the department and the friends and relatives here of the officers and men in the Philippines, but it was late in the afternoon before it was received. Much regret was expressed at the death of Colonel Egbert, the only regular officer among the killed. He was among those who distinguished themselves at Santiago, being wounded at San Juan and breveted for conspicuous gallantry in that engagement.

The adjutant general received the following dispatch from General Otis:

"Entire casualties Saturday one officer, 25 enlisted men killed; eight officers, 142 men wounded. Officer killed, Captain Stewart, First Colorado. List called immediately. Yesterday's fighting south and around Polo determined. MacArthur with three brigades united, arriving at Malabon, Calocan, engaging enemy. Colonel Egbert, Twenty-second infantry, killed. Our loss thus far moderate; enemy's heavy. Army gunboats on coast and in Estuaries, west and north of Polo, very efficient; troops in excellent condition and spirits. Our casualties yesterday much lighter than Saturday. The total reported since the engagement began is 45 dead and 145 wounded."

London Press.

London, March 27.—The Philippine campaign of late had rather lost interest for British readers, but today there is an entire change. All the dispatches are printed prominently and at length. Most of the papers contain editorials expressing admiration for the bravery of the American troops and sympathy with them in the difficulties they have encountered. The general opinion is that the American victories are not conclusive, since the Filipinos have not yet learned the lesson of the hopelessness of resisting the United States.

BANDITS CAPTURED

Five Taken Prisoners and Two Killed in Santiago District.

Santiago de Cuba, March 27.—Five more bandits have been captured and two others killed. The citizens express satisfaction at the capture of Matamoros and Trucon, well known brigands, and it is thought that with their capture the backbone of brigandage in this district is broken.

Colonel Juan Vian, the new chief of gendarmerie, is showing much more energy than was displayed by his predecessor, Colonel Francisco Valiente. Indeed, the recent captures are due to his zeal, and he believes that little if any further trouble will arise from brigands for a time, at least.

Sampson at Kingston.

Kingston, Jamaica, March 27.—Rear Admiral Sampson's squadron arrived here yesterday from Santiago de Cuba. Crowds gathered along the piers, cheering enthusiastically, and all the shipping in the harbor was beflagged. The various public buildings were decorated with the entwined Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes. Guards of honor have been ordered to receive the American admiral today. A long series of entertainments for the officers of the squadron is being arranged, and the governor's and naval annual receptions have been postponed in order to fall within the period of Admiral Sampson's stay.

Held Without Bail.

Carbon, Ind., March 27.—Walter Jones, charged with murdering Edward Adams, a prominent young man of this place a week ago, was arraigned at Brazil Saturday and held without bail. The coroner rendered a verdict of first degree murder in the case. Testimony introduced tends to prove that the murder was in cold blood.

Quiet and Restful Sabbath.

Thomasville, Ga., March 27.—President McKinley yesterday spent a quiet and restful Sunday, attending to no business save a few arrangements for the return trip to Washington late this afternoon, and listening to what Postmaster General Emory Smith had to say of his observations of conditions in Cuba. The weather was very warm, the thermometer registering 85 degrees, but a breeze was blowing.

Barroom Murder.

DR. KNAPP'S REPORT

On the Agricultural Possibilities of the Philippine Islands.

SUGAR AND RICE COUNTRY

But Careless Husbandry and Crude Methods Prevent Full Development of Those Industries—Other Products of the Island—Cost of Land—Uniform Temperature.

Washington, March 27.—Dr. S. A. Knapp, who was sent by the department of agriculture to Japan, China and the Philippines as an agricultural explorer, has returned to Washington and reported to Secretary Wilson the results of his labors. He was instructed to investigate such products of the farms, fields and forests of those countries as might be of advantage to the agricultural industries of the United States. Regarding the Philippines the report says:

Arriving at Manila, Dr. Knapp went by rail as far as San Fernando, passing through the rice section to the east and north of Manila, on to the sugar lands to the north. The yield per acre, according to the best authorities, is about 1,000 pounds of hulled rice on lands under rainfall irrigation solely and 2,000 pounds on lands artificially irrigated. This shows very careless husbandry. The rich clay loam soil about San Fernando is well adapted to sugarcane. In Luzon the methods of sugar farming are quite different from those practiced in the United States, while the factories are the crudest conceivable.

In the islands of Panay, Negros and Cebu, the sugar farms and factories are much more improved than in Luzon. Sugar lands produce from 3,000 to 5,000 pounds per acre, depending upon the cultivation and the factory.

The Filipinos, as far as he observed, do not give as much attention to the production of nitrogenous foods as the Japanese, hence are less muscular. Spanish statistical reports and interviews with Manila exporters satisfied the doctor of the prosperity of the tobacco and hemp industries under normal conditions.

Millet, maize, sugo and indigo do well and are ordinarily profitable crops. Philippine coffee, of which there were formerly many plantations, has a peculiarly rich and pleasant flavor. Coconuts, pineapples, oranges, bananas, grapes, figs and many other fruits grow almost spontaneously.

The Philippine islands abound in valuable wood for building, furniture, dye woods and some yielding costly gums.

According to the best authority nearly two-thirds of the land is still public and passes to the United States with the title. If opened for settlement to soldiers, many of our young men will remain and become permanent settlers. Some associations of this kind have already been organized. The price of improved land ranges from $4 to $20 per acre (gold), depending upon the location and value of the improvements. Reports of the observatory at Manila show that the average rainfall for the past 30 years has been 75.4 inches.

The temperature is quite uniform, averaging during the past 18 years 77 degrees for January, the coldest month, and 83.8 degrees for May, the warmest month. Within that period the thermometer only once rose to 100 degrees and once fell to 70.4 degrees.

Prominent Filipinos assured Dr. Knapp that upon their estates the laborers were industrious and thrifty, and if encouraged these conditions would become general. A visit to the carpenter shops, machine shops and various small factories satisfied him that the Filipinos make good mechanics when properly trained.

Customs Appraisers.

Washington, March 27.—The appointment of former Representative Bynum of Indiana as a member of the board of general appraisers of New York is expected after the president's return. It was decided upon when the appointments of Representative Sherman and Mr. Howells to similar positions were made some time ago, but was not made because it was feared the senate would reject the nomination. Representative Sherman has not yet taken his appointment, so there are two vacancies on the board.

Ex-Governor Fletcher's Remains.

Washington, March 27.—The remains of ex-Governor Thomas C. Fletcher of Missouri, who died here late yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Fletcher and daughter, left this city last evening over the Pennsylvania railroad for St. Louis. Aside from a prayer offered by Rev. Dr. Clark of Foundry church there were no services over the body here.

EARTHQUAKE

Victoria, B. C., March 27.—The steamer Tacoma from Japan for Tacoma reports that when on her way from Kobe to Yokohama she was caught in the big earthquake of March 7. So severe was the shock that two officers were thrown off their feet. The full extent of the damage done by the earthquake had not been learned when the Tacoma left Japan. At Osaka several mills were razed to the ground, 10 men were killed and many injured.

ALGER AT HAVANA

Transport Ingalls Loses Her Way and Sights Matanzas.

Havana, March 27.—Secretary of War Alger and his party arrived here late yesterday afternoon on the United States transport Ingalls, after having lost their way at sea for several hours. It seems that the Ingalls was making very good time and was likely to make Havana Saturday night if she kept on a straight course. General Alger suggested waiting a while at Key West and leaving there in time to reach Havana Sunday morning. The Ingalls put into Key West and General Alger wired General Brooke to expect him Sunday morning.

The whole party was up for an early breakfast yesterday, after which all went on deck to wait for El Morro to loom up. Nine o'clock came, but there was no sign of the castle. General Alger, getting a little impatient, sent to the pilot-house to inquire when Havana would be reached. The reply was "in about an hour." An hour and a half passed with the Cuban coast on the left and still Havana was unsighted.

Toward noon the roofs of a city could be made out, and General Alger, calling for a glass, took a close look. "Why, that is Matanzas," he said, and just then the Ingalls began to turn around. The navigating officer was all out in his calculations. He thought he was west of Havana instead of east.

IN A DREAM

A Tacoma Physician Kills His Wife. Crazy With Grief.

Tacoma, March 26.—Dr. Charles Corey shot and killed his wife yesterday morning while the two were lying asleep. Corey was ill and his story of the affair is that he was laboring under a nightmare believing his wife was being pursued by a stranger who was intent on killing her. In his dream Corey followed the two from Tacoma to Washington and just as he fancied the man was about to stab her fired twice with his revolver.

He awoke with a start to find himself sitting in bed with a smoking revolver in his hand. Corey had drawn his revolver from its place under his pillow and killed his wife. The relations between Corey and his wife have been very affectionate and the authorities believe his story. He is nearly crazed with grief and friends are watching him to prevent his suicide. Mrs. Corey was a leader in the social club circles. She was afraid of a revolver and frequently suggested fear that she would some day be killed by one. Corey was not arrested.

If any private corporations in Indiana are violating their charters by entering trusts and combines the Attorney General should begin action against such corporations at once.

Within a few days assessors will begin the work of listing property for taxation. It is important that the work be carefully performed to the end that every one pays his just proportion of taxes. As to the listing of notes and accounts the law was changed by the last legislature. The law now provides that if a taxpayer desires a deduction of any of his indebtedness from the sum of his notes and accounts he must furnish the assessor an itemized statement of such indebtedness giving the names and residences of his creditors. If any taxpayer desiring a deduction of any indebtedness refuses to furnish such itemized statement with the names of his creditors then it will be the duty of the assessor to allow no deduction whatever.

This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. ### WHAT THEY SAY.

The Editorial Brethren Speak Kindly of Their Visit to Seymour.

PLEASANT AND PROFITABLE.

The nineteenth semi-annual meeting of the Southern Indiana Press Association held at Seymour Friday and Friday night was well attended and was regarded as a very successful meeting. The citizens of Seymour showed the members of the association every courtesy and the members of the local press were unpar in their efforts to make the meeting pleasant as well as profitable. The editors were all well pleased with their entertainment and went away feeling that Seymour ought to have the court house.—Columbus Republican.

MOST SUCCESSFUL.

The semi-annual meeting of the Southern Indiana Press Association at Seymour Friday was one of the most enjoyable, most successful and most largely attended in the Association's history. Editors came from all parts of the district and they were a representative lot. Seymour people were glad to have them and showed them many courtesies that will not soon be forgotten. The newspaper fraternity of Seymour, assisted by Mayor Mills, councilmen, and citizens worked like beavers to make the editors enjoy themselves and themselves and they succeeded admirably.

The association meeting was full of interesting things, chiefly among which was a discussion of the new laws that effect newspaper publishers, the effect of clubbing with metropolitan papers, and country correspondence.

The association is especially indebted to Messrs. E. A. Remy, Jay C. Smith, Charles Burkart and C. S. Mercer, the Seymour brethren, for the interest taken in the meeting and to Hon. O. H. Montgomery for his kind words of welcome on behalf of the citizens of Seymour.—Washington Gazette.

LONG TO BE REMEMBERED.

The Columbus Times gives an extensive write up of the meeting and speaks in complimentary terms of all the industries visited and the excellent hotel facilities in Seymour and the many courtesies extended the visitors. The Times concludes by saying: "The meeting at Seymour will long be remembered as one of the pleasantest winter meetings of the association."

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED.

Seymour delightfully entertained her guests and the visitors all spoke in high terms of Seymour and her people. The press of Seymour left nothing undone and at the close of the meeting they furnished their visitors with tickets to the theatre to hear and see Josh Sprucey, who entertained a crowded house.—Columbus Democrat.

LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC.

The annual meeting of the Southern Indiana Press Association was held at Seymour Friday. It was largely attended. Over fifty newspapers were represented. Editors from eight congressional districts of Indiana were present. There were two sessions of the Association held, and several important subjects discussed. The subject, "Laws Passed by the Last Legislature Affecting Newspapers," was discussed over two hours, nearly every publisher taking part. Speeches were made on various other topics. Public spirited citizens of Seymour occupied every available moment that the editors had at their disposal in entertaining the members. The association meeting was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Indiana.—Vincennes Commercial.

Salem Audience Pleased.

Last Saturday's Salem Journal says: "The Schumann Concert Company maintained its wonderful record for the production of grand entertainments in its appearance here last night. Each member seemed to be perfect in the presentation of her part. Every piece rendered received long continued cheering."

Miss Girtle Goens went to Bedford Sunday to visit friends.

April Ladies Home Journal.

"Easter in the Church," picturing some churches most artistically decorated for Easter, appropriately open the April Ladies' Home Journal. "Easter Morn in a Colored Convent" and Easter Monday's "Egg-Rolling in the President's big yard," though differing widely, are also timely and interesting. A notable feature recounts the eccentric and dazzling career of "The Magnificent 'Madam' Rush," portrays "The life of a Japanese girl." Three articles of peculiar interest are entitled "How to be Pretty Though Plain," "About Men" emphasizing the evils of flirting, and "what it means to be a housewife," showing the requirements of the vocation.

Edward Bok editorially writes to the girl who seeks "higher education" and cannot go to college, and upon the housewife's work. The fiction of the number includes the opening chapters of Mrs. Charles Terry Collins' new serial, "A College Courtship," and a short story by Ellen Douglas Deland, "The Girl on the Boston Express." John Kendrick Bange contributes a sketch, "The Booming of Acre Hill," which is extremely humorous. A page of pictures introduces some of the best known of the Journal's illustrators; other pages show "Some of the Coziest Homes in America," By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar per year; ten cents per copy.

A TWO HOUR BREAKFAST.

It is One of the Institutions of New Orleans.

There is a place in New Orleans that strangers are always glad to have pointed out—Begy's, over in the French quarter, kept by Mme. Begy (pronounced Bigay), with the accent on the last syllable, and famous for the breakfast it serves at 11 o'clock every morning.

Originally this breakfast was intended for the butchers, and they contributed to it the daintiest meats that the splendid French market in New Orleans provided from day to day. Gradually outsiders began to come in, and now one must engage a seat at breakfast two days ahead. The morning the writer was there a distinguished judge of the supreme court was the principal visitor, and he, with his family and several guests from Boston, sat at the head of the table.

One long table occupies the little dining room, to which one climbs by a rickety flight of stairs. Every Frenchman, when he gets up, takes a cup of coffee and a roll, and at 11 o'clock eats his breakfast. This is the meal that Mme. Begy serves, and it costs $1. The kitchen is right off of the dining room, and there is no pretense of adornment. Everything is as plain and simple as it can be, excepting the food, and this is the perfection of the gastronomic art. A bottle of claret stood at each place, which, with water imported from Germany and called "blue label," was all there was to drink until the little cup of black coffee finished the repast.

The first thing served was duck. It was excellent, and so was everything else included in the eight or nine courses that came on, and that concluded, singularly enough, with liver, so cooked that the only regret was that the piece was not larger. It takes two hours to eat a breakfast at Begy's, and you get enough to last you for all day.—Leslie's Weekly.

Anthony Hope's New Romance.

Anthony Hope's new romance, which he has just finished, is called "The Countess Emilia," and has been purchased by the Ladies' Home Journal, in which it will immediately begin. The story is about a beautiful Countess. She has quarreled with her husband and they have decided to live in seclusion in separate wings of the castle. This they do until Captain Dieppe inadvertently opens a door, through which are revealed to him the apartments of the exiled countess. The Captain falls in love with the young woman, and from this point there is not a moment's cessation in the romantic adventures which ensue in the castle, its gardens and neighboring places of rendezvous.

Highly Entertained.

The Milan, (Tenn.) Hustler has the following to say of the Schumann Concert Company:

Milan people enjoyed the first high class entertainment of this season at the opera house last Monday and Tuesday night, the Schumann Grand Concert Company being the attraction. A large crowd was in attendance, and all speak of the entertainment in the most complimentary way.

Miss Maud Willis, the charming reader, rendered several pleasing selections and was encored each time.

Miss Cornelia Van etten, the vocalist, rendered a number of selections in a most pleasing manner.

Miss Smith, the pianist, impressed the audience of her ability to combine grace and gentleness of touch with rapidity, and to appreciate fully her accomplishments one must needs hear to believe.

Mrs. Col. Richardson SAVED BY MRS. PINKHAM.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 75,856]

"You have saved my life, snatched me from the brink of the grave almost, and I wish to thank you. About eighteen months ago I was a total wreck, physically. I had been troubled with leucorrhoea for some time, but had given hardly any attention to the trouble.

"At last inflammation of the womb and ovaries resulted and then I suffered agonies, had to give up my profession (musician and piano player), was confined to my bed and life became a terrible cross. My husband summoned the best physicians, but their benefit was but temporary at best. I believe I should have contracted the morphia habit under their care, if my common sense had not intervened.

"One day my husband noticed the advertisement of your remedies and immediately bought me a full trial. Soon the pain in my ovaries was gone. I am now well, strong and robust, walk, ride a wheel, and feel like a girl in her teens. I would not be without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it is like water of life to me. I am very gratefully and sincerely your well-wisher, and I heartily recommend your remedies. I hope some poor creature may be helped to health by reading my story."—MRS. COL. E. P. RICHARDSON, RHINELANDER, WIS.

SPECIAL SESSION.

The Council Make a Change in the Course of a Sewer.

Saturday evening the council met in special session to consider some changes necessary in the course of the branch sewer from the intersection of Branch and Poplar street west. It was the original intention to extend the sewer west across the old fairgrounds and the contract for the work was let to Ewing Shields, conditioned on the securing of a right-of-way across these grounds. There was a tacit understanding that the right-of-way would be granted, but the owners of this property finally concluded that they would not grant it. Therefore a change was necessitated.

The special meeting was for the purpose of adopting another course for the sewer, which is very much needed. The members of the council with the engineer had gone over the ground carefully Friday and Saturday and were ready with a report. After a rather lengthy discussion it was decided by a vote of 7 to 3 to run the sewer from the intersection of Poplar and Branch streets in a south westerly direction to the corporation line, a distance of 1100 feet. Ewing Shields is to do the work for $1300 which is about $700 less than the contract price for the other route. It is generally conceded that the change will make a much more serviceable sewer besides costing much less. The action of the council will doubtless meet the approval of the people.
